

THE CHANGING LANDSCAPE OF THE COLNE VALLEY

Points of interest/history

1) To reach the 3 pubs in Denham village, after going through the kissing gate, go ahead and turn right onto Village Road. The name Denham means village in the valley. The village centre has changed remarkably little since early 20th century.

2) Pop in for a cuppa and a chat with our friendly volunteers about further areas to explore in the Colne Valley Park

For points of interest/history, turn over when you see this

1) From the main entrance of Colne Valley Park Visitor Centre, head towards the wooden signpost marked 'Denham Village' crossing over a small roadway and, as you go through the gap, stop and look at the mosaic pattern on the ground next to the Roman Well. Bear left across the grass, go through the gate and then follow the footpath keeping the fence on your right. Continue on this path, crossing over the golf course and, after going through the kissing gate, immediately turn right to cross over the small bridge and then follow this footpath to St Mary's Church.  (1)

2) Turn left through the large iron gates and immediately turn right onto the public bridleway. Keep the wall to your left and, after about 100 yards, turn left through a gate into the churchyard. Continue straight ahead passing the grave on your left of Sir John Mills CBE and at the end of the churchyard path turn right onto a tarmac path (The Pyghtle) and follow the South Bucks Way/public bridleway signpost.

3) At the footpath intersection leave the tarmac path, ignore the gate on your right into the golf course and head straight across. Follow this bridle path, keeping the railway line to your left. When you reach the river cross the bridge, follow the path and then cross the second bridge to reach Denham Country Park.

4) Continue along this path through the park, over several small footbridges, and then across a large wooden bridge over the River Colne. At the path fork take the left path and follow the Colne Valley Park Visitor Centre signpost. Turn right when you reach the path T-Junction and just before you reach the car park turn right and go through the kissing gate. Carefully cross the road, go through the kissing gate and, keeping the hedge-line on your right, follow the track back to the Colne Valley Park Visitor Centre  (2)
